This plugin allows you to publish NUnit test results.

This plugin makes it possible to import NUnit reports from each build into Jenkins so they are displayed with a trend graph and details about which tests that failed.

- Update link in help

Version 0.10 (Mar 18, 2010)

- Plugin no longer throws a File exception when test case names contain <>|?* characters. (JENKINS-5673)

Version 0.9 (Jan 31, 2010)

- Update code for more recent Hudson

Version 0.8 (Apr 13, 2009)

- Re-inserted the dropped exception strings. Note, that this version requires Hudson 1.298 (JENKINS-3427)

Version 0.7

- Removed dependency of maven plugin, this will fix the issue not being able to use the plugin with Hudson 1.296 (JENKINS-3427)

Version 0.6

- Plugin now merges JUnit and NUnit test results into one test report (JENKINS-1091)
- NUnit file report pattern can not cope with spaces in paths (JENKINS-1175)

Version 0.5

- Fixed so the plugin works on a remote agent
- More error tolerant XSL transformation (JENKINS-1077)

Version 0.4

- Removed exception throwing when no test reports could be found

Version 0.3

- Fixed so the plugin calls the correct method in JUnit archiver. (JENKINS-1016)
- Made sure that NUnit record archiver runs before other notification plugins (JENKINS-947)
- Fixed so the number of skipped tests in the NUnit report is copied to the JUnit reports.

Version 0.2.3

- Fixed a problem when removing the temporary JUnit reports that occurred on windows.

Version 0.2.2

- Removes the transformed JUnit reports after they have been recorded by the JUnitArchiver

Version 0.2.1

- Splits the transformed JUnit file in code instead of using the <redirect> feature in Xalan. (Fixes JENKINS-892)

Version 0.2

- Splits the NUnit report file into several JUnit files to fix the problem that the file name is shown instead of the namespaces.

Version 0.1

- First version
