

SSH Slaves plugin

Plugin Information

View SSH Slaves on the plugin site for more information.

Older versions of this plugin may not be safe to use. Please review the following warnings before using an older version:

- Man-in-the-middle vulnerability due to missing host key verification

SSH Slaves plugin

This plugin allows you to manage agents running on *nix machines over SSH.

Name	<input type="text" value="AgentName"/>
Description	<input type="text" value="SSH Agent"/>
of executors	<input type="text" value="1"/>
Remote root directory	<input type="text" value="/home/username"/>
Labels	<input type="text" value="unix ssh"/>
Usage	<input type="text" value="Use this node as much as possible"/>
Launch method	<input type="text" value="Launch agent agents via SSH"/>
Host	<input type="text" value="192.168.1.100"/>
Credentials	<input type="text" value="user/ (SSH credentials for Agr)"/>	<input type="button" value="Add"/>
Host Key Verification Strategy	<input type="text" value="Known hosts file Verification Strategy"/>
	<input type="button" value="Advanced..."/>
Availability	<input type="text" value="Keep this agent online as much as possible"/>

Documentation

- Configuration guide
- Troubleshooting guide
- Changelog