

Kagemai Plugin

Plugin Information

No information for the plugin 'kagemai' is available. It may have been removed from distribution.

Kagemai Plugin

This plugin integrates Kagemai to Hudson. Kagemai is a free web-based bugtracking system written in Ruby scripting language. Kagemai Bug Id in changelogs are now hyperlinked to the corresponding Kagemai issue pages (complete with tooltips),

Build #1 (Mar 4, 2009 10:53:57 PM)

 Revision: 182

 Changes

1. fix issue 3 \(detail\)
2. fix issue 2 \(detail\)
3. fix issue 1 \(detail\)

 foo

and Kagemai issue list.

Hudson » sample » #1 » Kagemai Result

 Back to Project

 Status

 Changes

 Console Output

 Tag this build

 Kagemai Result

 Previous Build

Issue List

- 1 - hoge
- 2 - foo
- 3 - bar

Configuration

System Configuration

First, you need to go to Hudson's system config screen to tell Hudson where's your Kagemai.

- URL - the root URL of your Kagemai installation, eg. <http://example.org/kagemai/guest.cgi>
- Encode - the encoding of your Kagemai setting, default EUC_JP. (option)
- HTTP Basic Authentication - user Basic Authentication UserName and Password of your Kagemai installation. (option)

Kagemai

Kagemai Site

URL ?

Encode ?

HTTP Basic Authentication

User Name

Password

Project Configuration

In the top section, select the url of your Kagemai installation.

Kagemai Enable (Enable hyperlink to the issue)

Site ?

Project ID ?

Bug ID Regex ?

The Kagemai ProjectID of your Kagemai project. It looks the following.

Post-build Actions

In the Post-build Actions section, choose "Record kagemai issue list" (option).

- Record kagemai issue list

Changelog

Version 1.3 (2009/12/29)

- Update uses of deprecated APIs

Version 1.2 (2009/03/04)

- First release