GMail

The following screenshot illustrates the Hudson e-mail configuration you’d need to do to send e-mails from GMail.

Note that you have to click "Advanced" button in the configuration screen to get the extra configuration items.

The password is your GMail password. Also check out GMail help center documentation for more information on this topic.